Using Text Mining to Help Bring Electronic Discovery Under Control

John Tredennick
Bruce Kiefer
Content is Exploding

161 Exabytes a year

- 161,000 Petabytes
- 161 Million Terabytes
- 161 Billion Gigabytes
- 161 Trillion Megabytes

Library of Congress—30 Terabytes

5 Million Libraries a Year!
Litigation Keeps Going

Average Corporation: 37 ongoing lawsuits

- Major companies: 556 Lawsuits.
- Major insurers: 1,696 lawsuits.
- New cases on the rise internationally.

eDiscovery review costs estimated at $10-$12 billion a year.

Litigation Trends Survey
Fulbright & Jawarski

Search | Analyze | Review
Regulations More Demanding

- Sarbanes Oxley, Hippa, Graham Leach Bliley, FCPA
- FRCP Amendments for electronic discovery
- U. S. Investigations by SEC, FTC, DOJ, EPA
- European Community and Asia competition and antitrust review

The World is Getting more complex . . .
Who We Are

Secure, hosted software to help corporations and counsel:

Work together on complex cases and regulatory matters

• Process, index and ingest
• Search, analyze and cull
• Review, produce and prepare

Control litigation and discovery costs

Grid-Based eDiscovery Platform for Complex, Multi-Language Matters
Foreign Corrupt Practices Act

Unlawful for a U.S. company to:

• Offer money or other value to obtain business or preserve it
• Requires periodic reporting and record keeping
• Criminal penalties: $2 M per violation and up to 5 years jail
• Enforced by DOJ and SEC

Acquiring company liable for the sins of its target
Using Text Mining to Help Bring Electronic Discovery Under Control

John Tredennick
Bruce Kiefer